
Bankruptcy

The Firm's extensive experience in all areas of bankruptcy include both debtor and creditor representation and commercial and consumer debts.

Our bankruptcy practice provides a full range of collection, foreclosure, receivership, and related litigation services. Our experience includes assisting and counseling creditor/lender groups in corporate reorganizations and proposals, and we represent a number of financial institutions, lenders, and trustees.

We also provide a variety of services to secured and unsecured creditors and can assist with security instruments, judgments, workout plans and other bankruptcy proceedings.

The firm provides services in Chapter 11 reorganizations of large corporate entities and small businesses, Chapter 7 personal bankruptcies, and Chapter 13 wage earner reorganizations.

Attorneys

- Lance J. Arnold
- James G. Burke, Jr.
- Dennis M. Laborde
- David T. Lawson
- Jena W. Smith