

Our attorneys are exceptionally qualified to represent the following individuals and corporations engaged in the Oil & Gas industry:

- Producers: Major and Independent
- Oil & Gas Royalty Owners
- Mineral Lessors
- Mineral Servitude Owners
- Well Service Companies
- Marine Transportation Companies
- Environmental Companies

Areas of Expertise include:

drafting, reviewing, negotiating, and advising clients on: mineral leases and mineral servitude agreements; gas sales and purchase contracts; gas exchange agreements; unitization agreements; drilling contracts; vessel rental agreements; right-of-way and servitude agreements; royalty problems related to oil and gas production and processed liquids; unitization hearings; other hearings before State or Federal administrative bodies; environmental matters; handling problems related to state regulatory requirements and penalties; title opinions relating to Oil & Gas properties; acquisition of permits from various governmental agencies.

Our attorneys are also experienced litigators in all of the above Oil & Gas areas.

Attorneys

- James G. Burke, Jr.
- David L. Carrigee
- Thomas J. Cortazzo
- John C. Enochs
- Jedd S. Malish
- Leon H. Rittenberg, III
- William B. Schwartz
- Bernard H. Ticer
- Paul N. Vance
- Wm. Daniel Wellons